

The City of San Pablo was very proud to have 18 summer interns, representing various local high schools and colleges. The San Pablo Summer Internship Program is part of a comprehensive strategy to ensure youth have the tools and support they need to be successful in school and in life.

